

A Canny North East Guide to Outdoor environment

You can go green In...

Do you like working outdoors? Jobs that protect our trees, landscapes and wildlife are so important as the effects of climate change take place. We also need to build defences against natural disasters like flooding. If you are passionate about the environment or want to look at how we produce food more sustainably, this could be for you.

Skills

- Practical working
- Resilient
- Teamworking
- Organisation

Interests

- Working in the outdoors
- Nature and wildlife
- Waste and recycling
- Working with tools

Visit our guide to Green Careers to find out more